CAUTION

The American Watch Company.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great numbers, calculated, by their utter worthlessness, to injure the reputation of our genuine products,-to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known. We manufacture four styles of Watches-The FIRST has the name "AMBRICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass."

engraved on the inside plate. The SECOND has the name "APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass."

engraved on the inside plate. The THIRD has the name

" P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass." engraved on the inside plate. All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name " WM. BLLBRY, Boston, Mass." engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial. All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold and silver cases.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have allu ded. They are usually inscribed with names so nearly approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass."-no such company existing. Some are pamed the "Boldier's Watch." to be sold as our Fourth or Wm. Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch;" others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.;" others the "P. S. Bart-ley," in stead of our P S. Bartlett, besides many varieties named in such a manner as to couvey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

A hitle attention on the part of buyers will protest them from gross imposition, ROBBIAS & APPLETON.

RUMORS FROM THE SOUTH. An Inside View of Affairs in the Southern Confederacy-The Confederates Still Ho. ping for Aid from France-Gen. Lee to be made Dictator-Jeff Davis very Unpop. ular-Gen. Beauregard Disheartened. New York, Jan. 24 .- The Times contains the translation of a letter from a Frenchman, for-merly of the rebel army, dated Richmond, January 11, to a triend here.

He reports the arrival of another agent of the French Emperor, named Martigny, via Nassau, and mysterious conferences Jeff. Davis. It is known, he says, that Jeff. has promised to recognize the empire of Mexico, and promised France all the advantages of the Southern Confederacy, if Napoleon would recognize and support the southern cause. The writer has no doubt the plan of making General Lee dictator will be adopted, as the only means to countenact the strength of the North. Lee has expressed an unwillingness to accept it. He and Jeff are on bad terms, and the latter would have to retreat. The latter is very unpopular in consequence of keeping Brazg so long in command. He even thought since Bragg's dismissal of giving him command of the army of Virginia, and sending Lee to Dalten, but had to abandon the plan on account of the great influence brought against it. Johnsten, who took command of Bragg's demoralized army, thought of retrea ing to Atlanta, but was kept at Dalton by orders from Richmond, that he might take advantage of the probable weakening of the northern army by furloughs and the expiring terms of service. Jeff's plan is to keep the armies on the offensive, though Lee gave an opinion that with the miserable condition of the army in regard to clothing and provisions, it was impossible to do so. Gen. Early's expedition was a miserable failure, more than a thousand veterans returning hors de combat, having their hands and feet frozen. The news from Charleston, the writer says, is discouraging. Beauregard has expressed an opinion that he could not hold Charleston much longer, as Gilmore's guns are in position to reduce it to ashes in a few hours if he intends doing so. One South Carolina regiment, doing duty there, intended to desert, but was prevented by one of them giving information. Twenty of the ringleaders were shot on the 4th of January, and the rest divided up among other regiments. The 13th Virginia regiment, ordered to Alabama, refused to go. They were disbanded and used in filling up other regiments. Bread riots occur almost daily in the South. The southern people are getting tired of the war. John Morran has been given command of Magruder's army, but will be more successful than the latter. The writer concludes by saying "the days of the Scuthern Confederacy are numbered, and its backbone is broken."

FROM EUROPE.

New York, Jan. 24.—The steamship Etna, from Liverpool on the 6th, and Queenstown on the 7th, has arrived. The Canada arrived at Liverpool on the 5th, and the City of Cork at Queenstown on the 5th inst. The Louisiana left Liverpool on the 5th inst., for New York The English news is unimportant.

In the French corps legislatif several amendments to the address of the Emperor were in-treduced, expressing greater sympathy with Polard, and declaring it expedient to recognise the Poles as belligerents. The report on the committee on supplementary credits, asked by the Government, warns the Executive against dangerous entanglements, and unanimously advises that an end be put to the Mexican expedition as soon as the interests and honor of France will permit. The committee conclude by proposing the adoption of a bill. The King of Denmark has issued a spirited, warlike address to the army, and calls on it to uphold the honor of the country by force, if necessary. A Copenhagen telegram says about fourteen thousand men of the reserve have been called out. The report that an English and French fleet will soon visit Copenhagen is contradicted, but the fact that the English channel fleet is recalled home lends some color to the statement. The German troops in the Palatine show continued activity. The official general correspondence of Vienna cautions the minor German States against precipitate action against Denmark, and warns then against carrying out the attack. It is reported that the excitement is increasing throughout Germany. There is universal belief that there will be a war during the next Spring

The rumor that the new King of Greece has quitted Athens, in despair of regulating the confusion, is not confirmed.

The Latest. The London Times is suspicious of the ultra pacific tone of Napolen, and says that such a line of conduct is, more than any other, favorable to French ambition, and is by no means the readiest way to obtain peace. It would be better if France should employ her influence in endeavoring to check the suicidal passions which are urging Germany into a war which must, before long, sweep into its vortex every part of Europe. Sir William Hall, late admiral of the fleet, is dead. The trial of King and Heenan, for prize-fighting, is postponed till the next quarter ses-

The rebel General Wheeler is on the eve of a raid. It is believed he will turn in the direction of Loudon and Knoxville. A body of rebel cavalry dashed into Lafayette, a few days ago, and conscripted fifty-two men, among whom were two of 80 years of age. Parson Brownlow's brother, who lay in a Tuscaloosa dungeon until his finger and toe nails rotted off, has again been captured. He was in Federal uniform. On the 20th inst. a fight took place near Russellville. A large rebel force attacked an Ohio regiment on picket, killing Adjutant Smith and four men, wounding fourteen, and then drove the regiment to

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—Among the series of resolutions before the Legislature is one which concludes as follows: " Resolved, That the people still look to Abraham Lincoln as the instrument selected by Pro-vidence to lead their country through all its peril, and restore it again to a place in which that we do most heartily favor his re-election This passed the Senate with but five dissenting votes, and the Assembly with only two objecting members.

The New Indiana Regiments. Indianapolis, Jan. 23.—The troops in the camps of rendezvous in Indiana number enough to organize at least four cavalry and three infantry regiments. Besides these, there are many partially organized companies, which will make the whole number of enlisted men for the new regiments nearly 8,000. As soon as these troops can be organized and officered as regiments, they will be placed under command of Gen. Hovey.

The Cincinnati Sanitary Fair. CINCINNATI, Jan, 23.—The sum of $200,000 has been paid over to the sanitary commission by the officers of the sanitary fair The funds are still coming. It is thought the net total will reach $210.000. Death of an Actress.

Capture of a Rebel Mail-Its Contents, &c. NEW YORK, Jan. 21 - The Herald's special gin a, to-day, sey We have captured a rebel mail. The secrets of the mail bag are curious and interesting, and, in one or two instances, highly important. Almost all of them contain remarks on the President's surnesty proclamation, the suffer-ings anticipated in rebeldom, the complaints of the soldiers on the manner in which rebel officers, high in position, are spoken of, &c., all serve in very many respects to confirm the reports in circulation in the Northern papers regarding the condition of the Confederacy The weather continues very mild, but the common roads are hardly in a passable condition for the heavy trains and artillery. Several prominent citizens and rebel officers, one of them widely known as a former Presbyterian minister, are negotiating to come within our lines under the President's amnesty proc-

CIRULATING TER DOCUMENTS .- Gen. Longstreet lately complained to Gen. Foster that the Union soldiers were surreptitionally circulating the President's Amnesty Proclamation among his troops, and that all documents should pass through official hands. Foster replied possibly, and enclosed a number of the proclamations for the use of Longstreet's men. But whether this method is the best or not, our soldiers continue the unofficial and irregular practice of circulating the documents.
